

Local nonprofit helps Santa Fe SWAT team train

The New Mexican | Posted: Friday, August 9, 2013 7:25 pm

The Santa Fe Police Department SWAT team trained at abandoned buildings off Airport Road Friday morning.

The buildings, that will eventually be demolished, are owned by Homewise, Inc., a local non-profit that helps working families become homeowners.

Homewise, Inc. feels this would be a great opportunity to offer much-needed training to the Santa Fe Fire Department too.